Dana Berman Duff short bio

Dana Berman Duff was named a Cultural Trailblazer by the Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs in 2020, and a retrospective of her short films was programmed in 2022 at REDCAT in Los Angeles's Disney Hall. Her film A POTENTIALITY was awarded an Alice Guy Special Mention at the 2020 FIDMarseille Film Festival. Her works in small format film and video have been screened in the Toronto International Film Festival, International Film Festival Rotterdam, Edinburgh International Film Festival, Rencontres Internationales (Paris/Berlin), Dortmund/Cologne International Women's Film Festival, San Francisco Cinematheque's Crossroads, and in over sixty international film festivals. Duff's drawings and sculpture are in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art, the New Museum, the Carnegie Museum, and the Phillips Collection, as well as in private collections. She lives in Los Angeles and Mexico.